Binary Tree and Team Pay

more info

Every sales center in the binary tree has only two possible sales centers directly connected to it and so on down the line. Your binary tree is comprised of all of your personally enrolled distributors who are placed by you in one of two teams, either your left team or your right team. Personally sponsored distributors are placed to the extreme outside left or extreme outside right of your binary tree. Team pay is calculated and based on sales performance by your team in the binary tree and you receive sales credit on those sales from either your left team or your right team activity down to unlimited depth. These sales credits are shown as BV. *You must be a qualified at the Dealer rank or above to receive team pay. Many equipment product sales are tracked and commissioned through the binary tree. Every new BV sales addition of 300 BV Left and 600 BV Right (or visa versa) pays a Team Cycle Bonus of either $25 or $40 USD.

Coded Leadership Bonuses

more info

Managers and Executives earn coded Leadership Bonuses with every water equipment sale throughout their manager and executive groups. These coded bonuses can pay to unlimited depth. Coded Leadership Bonus amounts vary according to each product sold. Coded Leadership Bonuses can accumulate together. If an Executive has no other executives or managers between them and the new sale, then they would receive the manager and the executive leadership coded bonus from that downline sale. Leadership Bonuses are paid through the Unilevel Tree.
